7. Security

Competitors must imperatively respect the highway code, otherwise they will be sanctioned, ride on the right, control and adapt their speed and stay in control of their trajectory.

Any competitor overtaken by the "End of Race" device at any point on the course will be disqualified. He will have to give back his race number to the race stewards, but he will be allowed to continue on his own responsibility and on his own account.

9. Wearing a helmet and equipment

Wearing a hard-shell helmet is compulsory and each competitor undertakes to wear it throughout the event. Participants lose the benefit of insurance cover if they do not wear a helmet. Non UCI-approved equipment is forbidden on the Aindinoise.

10. Responsibility for the equipment

Competitors are responsible for the proper functioning and monitoring of their equipment. The participants acknowledge the organiser's non-responsibility for the surveillance of goods or objects in the event of theft or loss.

11. Follower cars

Follower cars are forbidden.

12. Technical assistance

Each competitor must be autonomous and must leave with a minimum repair kit including, in particular, spare hoses or inner tubes to provide for any puncture. An assistance van will circulate at the end of the event and will be able to ensure the repatriation of competitors who are victims of major mechanical incidents.

13. Refreshment

Refreshments stations are organised on the classic course. Competitors may be supplied by their companions at other points on the course provided that the refreshments are provided by a pedestrian and do not affect the safety of the event. The refuelling of a participant from a moving vehicle is forbidden and will result in the immediate disqualification of the participant.

14. Environment

The throwing of any object, paper or rubbish on the road is strictly forbidden, under penalty of punishment, especially in so-called sensitive areas (Natura 2000). In addition, a waste collection area is set up after each refuelling area.

15. Insurance

Civil liability : the organisers have taken out a contract covering their civil liability as well as that of the participants involved. It takes effect only on the official route and for the duration of the event, for participants who are regularly registered, checked at the start, on the course and up to the finish.

Individual accident and health-related : It is the responsibility of the participants to guarantee themselves, obligatorily.

Material damage and liability : Neither the organiser nor its insurer will cover any damage to participants' equipment and materials, particularly in the event of a fall or theft. It is the responsibility of each participant to take out a guarantee.

16. Protocol and trophies

A trophy will be awarded to the best times in each category during the meal at CULOZ.

17. Refund

Registration is firm and final. However, in case of non-participation for serious reasons : accident, total incapacity, ... the registration fee will be refunded only upon written request before Friday 22 July 2022 (postmark as proof) with a compulsory medical certificate.

In the event of any deterioration in health conditions on the territory up to the day before the event, in conjunction with the public authorities, the organiser may decide to cancel the cyclo sportive. In this case, the organisation will reimburse each participant in full.

18. Image rights

By registering, participants authorise the organisers to use any images taken during the event on which they may appear.

19. Acceptance of the rules and sanitary arrangements

Registration for the Aindinoise implies unreserved acceptance of these rules.
